(11) Remaining hours shall be in maintenance or advanced areas from the following general topic areas.

(a) Ethics, use of force, report writing, critical incident management, defensive tactics, communications skills, or emergency vehicle operations.

(b) First line supervisors and mid-managers: Ethics, principles of supervision, field training and evaluation, performance appraisals, coaching, mentoring, vicarious liability, or communication skills.

(c) Agency executives and command staff: Ethics, leadership, policy development, strategic planning, goal setting, budgeting, human resources management, or employment law.

(d) Other approved advanced and specialized training/education or any maintenance training area which is designed to improve upon or add to the knowledge, skills, and abilities of the certified law enforcement officer.

B. Required training may be received through the following means.

(1) The advanced training bureau will contract for course instruction at the regional training sites.

(2) Where scheduling will allow, the training and recruiting division will assign staff to instruct the course at the regional training sites.

(3) Curriculum developed by the training and recruiting division will be provided to individual agencies upon request for their own certified instructors to present to their officers, provided the instructor is qualified in the subject matter.

(4) Individual agencies develop curriculum for review and approval (accreditation) by the academy which meets the criteria established by the board.

C. This four-pronged approach gives all agencies the flexibility they need to address individual training needs. It also allows the board to implement a planned program of in-service training that is responsive to the changing demands placed upon law enforcement and the opportunity to have statewide consistency in certain critical areas.

D. Implementation is to begin on January 1, 2012.

E. Officers obtaining certification between, January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2012, will be required to obtain one-half of the in-service training requirements. Officers obtaining certification between, January 1, 2013, and December 31, 2013, will be required to meet the next two-year requirement which will go into effect on January

1, 2014. This policy will apply in subsequent two-year cycles. Officers transferring from one agency to another will carry with them the responsibility for in-service training.
